Introducing the

ANZCA Examination System

Australian and New Zealand Cultural Arts Limited is a non-profit examining body of the performing arts. It is governed by a Board of Directors, who give of their time in an honorary capacity, and administered from a central office in Melbourne. ANZCA aims to provide music teachers and students with an examination system which is both accessible and innovative, combining the security of a proven format with an exciting range of repertoire.

ANZCA was formed in Melbourne in 1983. Now thoroughly established in Australia, New Zealand, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand and Singapore, ANZCA offers up to three practical and two theory examination series annually. Modern and classical exams are held in pianoforte, organ, guitar, vocal, trumpet and flute, as well as contemporary exams in pianoforte duet, keyboard, mandolin, ukulele, bass, drum kit, trombone, clarinet, saxophone, accordion, recorder, strings and theory of music. 2018 saw the introduction of Jazz Syllabus examinations, based around a new set of purpose-written grade books by renowned educator and composer Christopher Norton and ANZCA examiner Doug McGregor.

ANZCA's continued success lies in the combination of sound educational principles with a practical, common-sense attitude to the content and process of music examinations.

The assessment of most instruments includes up to three beginner levels (Introductory, Preparatory and Preliminary) preceding Grade One to ensure a comfortable introduction to music examinations, especially for the very young candidate. From Preparatory to Grade Eight, each standard practical examination consists of Technical Work, three or four List pieces (depending on the exam level), General Knowledge, Sight Reading and Aural Tests. Each section is given both a comment and a corresponding mark, with a total score out of 100. Beyond Grade Eight, three levels of Diploma are offered: Associate (Performer and Teacher), Licentiate (Performer and Teacher) and Fellowship Performer.

ANZCA believes that music is a living art, and aims to encourage the development not only of the traditional elements of technique and interpretation, but also of creativity. This is reflected in the inclusion of an improvisation alternative to sight reading for Modern Pianoforte candidates, and improvisation elements in some Aural Test exercises for most subjects. Embellishment and/or improvisation are expected in modern stream examinations (where appropriate), and from Grade One both streams may include a Free Choice list. This piece, which is marked equally with the set lists, may be from any source and in any style, within the syllabus requirements.

The ANZCA examiners comprise a highly professional group, including distinguished recitalists and music educationalists from universities and colleges throughout Australia and New Zealand. Both acknowledged experts in their field and experienced teachers, ANZCA's examiners are very mindful of the real problems facing the student and teacher alike. Candidates are greeted by name and treated in a friendly, relaxed manner (within the level of formality appropriate to the exam situation). Every effort is made to put the candidate at ease and make the examination a positive, enjoyable experience.

Feedback from teachers is encouraged, and policy is continually reviewed and adjusted, so that ANZCA can always meet the demands of a constantly changing society. Relevant observations or suggestions from teachers are welcomed.

Important Information for 2019

NEW ANZCA OFFICE:

After more than 30 years in the Greensborough/Diamond Creek area of Melbourne, February 2019 will see the ANZCA office relocate to Unit 18, 125 Rooks Road, Nunawading. This building in a new business park has been purchased and purpose-fitted for our requirements, with administrative, examination and performance spaces.

Situated close to Canterbury Road, Whitehorse Road, Springvale Road and Eastlink, the new office is around 2 km from both Nunawading and Mitcham railway stations, and is also easily accessed by bus.

From February 2019, ANZCA's new postal address will be P.O. Box 3277, Nunawading Business Hub Vic. 3131.

SYLLABUSES:

The 12-month syllabus changeover period has ended for the following syllabuses:

- Pianoforte/Keyboard
- Piano Duet
- Guitar/Bass/Mandolin
- Drum Kit
- Theory of Music

From 2019, candidates for these examinations must present programmes from the 2018–20 syllabuses.

With the release of the new Singing syllabus and support books early in 2019, the 12-month changeover option will be available to singing teachers and students throughout this year. If preparing students from the old syllabus, please remember to write "2015–17 Syllabus" on the student's examination entry slip to avoid confusion in the exam room.

Level 1 and 2 Jazz and Ukulele grade books/syllabuses are now available, with further books due for release this year.

ONLINE EXAM ENROLMENTS:

After successful trials in 2018, our new online examination entry system will be available to all teachers from Series 1 this year. This system will be accessible from a link on our website, and will require electronic payment at the time of entry.

Please note that online enrolment is optional; entries can still be submitted on standard entry forms by post or email.

Assessment

CRITERIA:

- a) Technical ability: appropriate for the grade, comprising accuracy, facility, co-ordination and control.
- b) Musicality: including interpretation, understanding of the style and structure of the works performed, dynamics, phrasing, rhythmic stability and melodic shape.
- c) Performance: conveying to the listener the character and spirit of the music with fluency and style.

BASIS:

All assessment depends upon the extent to which the candidate succeeds in achieving the above criteria. To ensure stability of marking standards, new examiners undergo a two-year training course, and all examiners attend regular meetings for ongoing training.

Assessment of standard practical examinations covers Technical Work, two (Introductory), three (Preparatory to Grade Three) or four (all other grades) pieces of differing styles, Sight Reading, Aural Tests and General Knowledge. Improvisation tests are included as an alternative to Sight Reading in Modern Pianoforte and Modern Organ from Grade Two.

Continued

Performance Syllabus and Jazz Syllabus exam assessment is based on four pieces only at all levels. There are no other requirements or prerequisites.

Examiners' comments are written during the examination. These are intended to assist the candidate and teacher, and correspond to the marks or grading awarded.

Assessments are based on the following guidelines for grade levels:

- Introductory to Grade Three: Development of basic music skills and technical accuracy. While an appropriate grade standard must be attained, students are given every encouragement for their efforts.
- Grades Four and Five: Development of a greater sense of musicality and style.
- Grades Six and Seven: A high degree of technical security and maturity of performance.
- Grade Eight and Diplomas: Stylistic awareness, musical sensitivity and technical competence.
A guideline handbook for all Diplomas is available from the ANZCA website.

GRADINGS AND CERTIFICATES: See Regulations, nos. 85 and 86.

4. Entry forms are included with examination results.
5. Where applicable, country teachers must submit the name and address of an appropriate supervisor for theory examinations at the time of entry. Where this information is not supplied, ANZCA reserves the right to cancel entries or to transfer candidates to the next examination series.
Written examinations may be held in any country centre provided that a suitable venue and supervisor are available. Reasonable costs will be covered by ANZCA for any centre with 20 or more students.
6. All entry forms must be signed by the teacher. The entry form constitutes an agreement to abide by ANZCA regulations.
7. Enrolments are accepted by ANZCA on the understanding that teachers and students are familiar with the examination requirements and procedure as set out in ANZCA syllabuses.
8. ANZCA reserves the right to refuse or cancel the entry of any candidate if considered necessary.

TEACHER NUMBER:

9. Teachers must include their teacher number on the entry form. Provision for this is made on both the front and back (in the upper left hand corner) of each form. New teachers will be allocated a number when their entries are recorded on the computer.

ENROLMENT FEES:

10. The correct fees (cheque/money order, credit card (with 1.5% surcharge) or electronic payment details) must accompany all entries.
11. One payment per teacher/studio only will be accepted. Do not send multiple cheques/money orders, or make multiple payments.
12. Cheques/money orders should be made payable to ANZCA.
13. Fees may be paid electronically using direct deposit, or by PayPal to admin@anzca.com.
14. Fees are not refundable under any circumstances.
15. Dishonoured cheques will result in the teacher incurring an additional fee to cover ANZCA's associated banking and bookkeeping costs. These costs are irrespective of the cheque amount.

LATE ENTRIES:

16. Late entries will be accepted up to one week (7 days) after the closing date; a late fee must be included with the examination fee (see current Examination Fees list).
17. Entries received after this period will be returned to the sender.

CANDIDATE DETAILS:

18. Teachers must ensure that all details, particularly spelling of students' names, are correct. Alterations cannot be made to report forms once details have been printed.
19. Candidates' date of birth must be completed (where required) on the entry forms.

SPECIAL-NEEDS STUDENTS:

20. Teachers of students with medical or other conditions (e.g. vision or hearing limitations, asthma or allergies, epilepsy, Autism Spectrum Disorder, etc.) which may affect the examination process or requirements must submit written notification to ANZCA, either with the entry form or no later than four weeks prior to the examination. This information should include a medical certificate wherever possible, and an action plan to deal with the condition.

Teachers must not hand notes to the examiner on the day of the examination. Examiners will only act on advice received in advance from the office.

21. Each case will be considered individually as to whether the examination can be modified or assessed without marks.

ENROLMENT CONFIRMATION:

22. Following the closing date for each series, teachers will receive an enrolment confirmation list. Teachers are required to check all candidate details (including name, instrument, grade, etc.) on this list, and advise the office in writing of any alterations. For any candidate added, a late fee and entry fee must accompany the returned list.
23. All alterations must be received at the ANZCA office by the date on the confirmation list. After this period, alterations to names will only be made to the final certificate, while corrections relating to subject or grade will incur a charge to cover the reprinting of exam material (see current Examination Fees list).

TRANSFERS AND CANCELLATIONS:

24. Application to change set examination times must be made, by the teacher, to the office. Transfers will only be considered on the condition that a suitable time and venue are available, and upon receipt of a further fee of 50% of the original examination fee.
25. Applications to transfer written examination candidates to new centres must be submitted to the office at least four weeks prior to the set examination date. No transfers will be accepted within four weeks of the examination.
26. Candidates transferring for any reason cannot change grade or subject.
27. Teachers are requested to notify the office of any examination cancellations.
28. Examination enrolment cannot be transferred from one candidate to another.

Practical Examinations

EXAMINATION DATES:

29. Exams are scheduled Monday to Saturday, and occasionally Sunday.
30. ANZCA will, wherever possible, accommodate teachers' requests for examination dates, provided that this information is submitted on the entry form. This includes details of religious days (including the Sabbath), dates of school examinations, excursions or camps, private school holidays (where these differ from those for State schools) or any other limitations to be considered.
31. Teachers and candidates must expect that examinations may be scheduled during the first week after school holidays.
32. It is possible that Series 3 examinations may overflow into December in some areas. Teachers can not request a December date, but should expect that some examinations may be set at that time.

STUDIO ALLOCATION:

33. If teachers wish their students to be examined in practical subjects at a particular school or studio, this must be stated on the entry form. Permission from the school or studio must be obtained before the entry is lodged with the ANZCA office. It is the teacher's responsibility to ensure the availability of the school or studio, and to be present to supervise their students at the centre if required.
34. If no centre is specified on the entry form, candidates will be scheduled at the nearest available venue.
35. A school or studio must have approximately three hours of examining time before ANZCA will assign an examiner to that centre. If a centre does not have the required time but is agreeable, ANZCA may be able to make up the three hours with candidates from other teachers.
36. Where a teacher's entries include more than one instrument, candidates may be scheduled according to instrument/subject on different days and/or centres, according to the availability of examiners.

STUDIO REQUIREMENTS:

37. It is the responsibility of the centre to provide a safe environment and ensure that adequate public liability insurance is in place to cover both examiners and students.
38. A supervisor must be present at all times to ensure each candidate enters the examination room as required.
39. The examination room must be separated from the view and hearing of the general public, and from external noise.
40. A desk or table and chair must be provided for the examiner.
41. Where a school or studio is made available for pianoforte examinations, teachers must ensure that the instrument is tuned and of examination standard.
42. All studios must provide a keyboard instrument for aural tests, irrespective of the instrument being examined (Drum Kit excepted).
43. A waiting room away from the examination area must be provided for candidates.
44. The examination centre is expected to provide the examiner with tea or coffee at morning tea, and a light lunch (eg. sandwiches), where these are included on the timetable.
45. Studios are not expected to provide practice time for candidates sitting at their centres.

EXAMINATION TIMETABLES:

46. Once dates and times are set for each centre, an examination timetable will be forwarded to the centre. Teachers must not alter this timetable.
47. Teachers must not contact examiners to discuss timetables or any other details of examinations.

EXAMINATION TIMES:

48. The times allowed for practical examinations are:

50. Entry slips with venue, date and time will be forwarded to teachers approximately four weeks prior to the examination. Candidates must bring the entry slip to the examination. Pieces to be performed must be listed on the back of practical entry slips.

IN THE EXAM ROOM:

51. Only examiners and candidates may enter the examination room, with the following exceptions:
 - An accompanist, who is to be present in the room only when required. It is the responsibility of the candidate to provide an accompanist.
 - A page turner (not the teacher) may be present when required at Diploma levels only.
 - The teacher, strictly in the event of student illness or technical problems with instruments or other equipment only.
52. Neither teachers, parents, nor any other person may enter the exam room for any reason, including page turning or sorting music books, except as specified in point 51 above.
53. Teachers and candidates must expect that at times there may be two examiners for levels below Diploma. New examiners need the opportunity to learn in both practical and theoretical situations.

LIST PIECES:

54. The examiner may, at his or her discretion, hear the whole or any portion of the works presented for examination.
55. Candidates must bring the original music for each list into the examination room, including the Free Choice solo. This includes pieces to be performed from memory.
56. Except for the Free Choice section, any work presented which is not set for the grade will be marked either from half the maximum score, or as Not able to assess.
57. It is the teacher's responsibility to ensure that the Free Choice solo is of at least the grade standard. Copies should not be submitted to the office for approval.
58. Any standard edition of works will be accepted for classical examinations. Candidates for modern examinations must use the edition specified in the syllabus.
59. Candidates should be familiar with repeats, although these should not be performed in the examination; however, Da capo and Dal segno directions should be observed. Modern stream candidates may include one repeat with embellishment or improvisation.
60. Where a candidate enters for both a classical and a modern examination in the same grade, no solo is to be used twice.
61. ANZCA does not approve of the use of photocopies in examinations. Candidates must present for examination with their own books or sheet music (including digital downloads), and will not be allowed to present works from photocopies of ANZCA publications. A photocopied portion of a page may be used for convenience of turning.
62. Candidates must erase all written marks from their music prior to the examination. Marks indicating embellishment, fingering, bowing, pedalling or registrations will be accepted.
63. Tempo should be in keeping with the style of the pieces. Where indicated, the metronome marks are to be regarded as an approximate indication of tempo.
64. Where a backing recording is to be used, each candidate must have a separate recording, to be correctly cued (where applicable) before entering the examination room. It is the responsibility of the teacher or candidate to provide suitable playback equipment and to ensure its smooth and timely operation.
65. Candidates must supply the examiner/s with copies of their music at the beginning of the examination under the following circumstances:
 - In Grades Six and Seven, a copy of any Free Choice piece which is not listed in the syllabus.
 - In Grade Eight and Diploma, copies of all list pieces.
 In all cases, photocopies will be retained by the examiner and destroyed.
66. Although not mandatory, except for Diploma, candidates are encouraged to memorize one or more of their pieces.
